

Watching in Wonder

Sunday, November 30, 2014
1st Sunday of Advent

"Be watchful! Be alert!" (Mark 13: 33)

It's here – Advent, the season of watching and wonder. Throughout this season, we watch for the arrival of Jesus, the one who loves us beyond our imagining and who comes at such a wondrous time of the year.

The theme of Advent for me this year is watching in wonder, trying to be alert to how Jesus comes to me in this season.

What's your theme for Advent? Are you on the watch for Jesus, too? Are you on the watch to be surprised by Jesus this Christmas? Do you know Jesus intimately so that you can watch for him? Are you on the watch to hear Jesus' voice?

The readings in Advent are so rich in imagery. I hope you will let the images speak to you during this most amazing time of the year and of your life.

May Jesus watch over you as you learn to watch in wonder for him this Advent Season.

Reflection:

*What do I need to do to watch and wonder in this Advent?
How or where will I look for Jesus this Advent?*

Prayer:

Jesus, bless me with wonder in watching. Amen.
